ALMANAC.

Now hunt up blankets, and put down your window sashes, cool nights, perhaps dampness in case of rain.

APPOINTMENT.

Mr. W. F. Phillips has been appointed a notary public for this county.

GEO. S. SHIRER.

Advertises a choice stock of goods, that he says he intends to get off cheap. Go and interview him.

BRIDGES.

See County Commissioners' no ice, there is a chance for somebody to get a job in bridge building.

CAPT. MORTIMER GLOVER.

We had the pleasure of seeing this gentleman again among us, and evidently improved by his trip.

D. LOUIS.

See this gentleman's new advertisement, he boasts of thirty-six years business experience, and cheap goods. All he asks is a trial.

DR. J. MILES HUNTER.

Offers his professional services to all parties afflicted with cancers, tumors, and kindred diseases. See advertisement.

LOOK HERE.

We offer the News & Times for one year to the lady who sends the best loaf of bread (home-made) to the fair, next month. No old bachelor must judge it.

The pastor and members of the Methodist Church, in this place are invited to worship with the Presbyterian congregation at their church, as the Methodist Church is now under repairs. They have accepted this cordial invitation.

J. P. HARLEY & CO.

These gentlemen appreciate the fact that business has revived, and that the best way to attract it is to employ the printer. They have a fine lot of fine goods, especially boots and shoes, and they are determined no one shall under sell them.

C. R. JONES.

Has opened a new store, full of new goods, at the old stand, occupied by Mr. McNamara. Mr. Jones is an energetic, business man, treats his customers just right, and wants those who don't know that, to come and try him.

PREMIUMS.

The State Agricultural and Mechanical Association, which meets at Columbia, offers three premiums for the best displays made at each County Fair, the first of $300, the second $200, and the third $100. Orangeburgers should make an effort, and we think we think would stand a good chance.

FLOWERS.

Our thanks are due Mr. A. Jourdain for a fine lot of Scuppernon Grapes, of different varieties, and a bouquet of Summer and Fall flowers, the grapes were fine, but the flowers! Well it is just the most handsomely arranged lot of flowers, evergreens &c., that we have seen in this 'burg.

DR. A. S. HYDRICK.

We hear that the Doctor intends opening a first class Drug store soon in Mrs. Oliveros' new building. His experience as city physician of Columbia for several years, and assisting in dispensing the drugs in Heimst's store there should recommend him to our public. Wait and see his advertisement.

Familiar faces are always gladly hailed among us. This is certainly a fact regarding Mr. P. P. Toale's advertisement which appears in another column. We can safely say that Mr. Toale is the Champion Manufacturer of Doors, Sash and Blinds, to which he adds a large list of requisites for the completion of any building. To the needy we say "send for his prices."

NEW FEATURE IN THE FAIR.

A special table will be prepared to exhibit any articles contributed by children under twelve years of age, and a superintendent and committee appointed to take charge, and award the different premiums, in the same manner as the other awards are made, so get ready little folks, there is "a place in the picture" for you too.

A CURIOSITY.

Mr. Riggs tells us that he picked from a tree in his orchard, a pear that certainly is a curiosity. It grew around a small twig passing directly through its centre, and was a complete and perfect pear, except that it had no seeds, it was eaten when ripe, and found to be of as good flavor as others gathered from the same tree.

ANOTHER RICHMOND IN THE FIELD.

The owner of Mollie Darling is not satisfied with having the one fastest horse in this "Burg" but he says he has the next fastest one too, and if any one don't think so "old Charlie" is ready to be interviewed. Just now he is in the hospital for repairs, but expects to be ordered into active service pretty soon.

BASE BALL.

We have received an account of the game played between the Rattle Snakes of Lewisville, and the Southern Stars of Branchville, five innings were played. The result 40 to 30 in favor of the Rattle Snakes. Those Snakes strike sometimes. The account winds up with a latin quotation, but as we have not time to come over a dictionary to find the meaning, we omit it.

FOR THE LADIES.

All parties in want of laces, ribbons, &c., or any article usually kept in a well stocked millinery store, will do well to pay Mrs. Oldendorf a visit at her store in the fire company building. She has just received a large lot of new and beautiful goods, and would like to show them to you even if you do not buy. No lady likes to see another with anything prettier than she has, so go soon or somebody else will get the pick.

C. D. KORTJOHN.

Comes to the "fore" with a new "ad" this week, and tells of a variety of new and attractive goods. Stoves and tin ware, boots, shoes, groceries, but we can't name all, go see for yourselves, we had almost forgotten to say it, but it is true, that Dick has shut up his bar-room, and no one now can get a drink from him for love or money. Nothing to fear now Ladies, go and buy your groceries there. And the sterner sex will ask for those A. No. 1 cigars of his the "Pride of Orangeburg" brand, they are good.

J. H. PARKER & CO.

These gentlemen speak for themselves elsewhere in our paper, it is worth your hunting it up and reading it, and then sending them your cotton to sell, or hold for you. They have with them E. C. Green a "whole team" in himself, he knows everybody, and everybody knows him, try these folks and see if you are not pleased.

MERONEY HOUSE.

This house was formally opened to the public on Monday night last, and we were one of a very pleasant party who celebrated the event, by disposing of one of those suppers that Mr. and Mrs. M. knows so well how to get up. After disposing of the good things, we went with Mr. Meroney over the entire building, and must confess to great surprise, at the comfort and economy contracted with in the space covered by the building. Of course we expected to see every thing in nice order, but to see so much done, in so little room, to see every room ventilated from so many different sides, and every square inch of space utilized, was something that we thought required the planning of an experienced architect. To our surprise we were told that the whole had been designed and completed according to the direction of Mrs. Meroney. The main dining room will seat some sixty guests, and the house has some twenty-six rooms, all comfortably furnished and carpeted, and we confidently recommend all travelers, to the "tender mercies" of mine host Meroney.

GEO. H. CORNELSON.

Under the guidance of friend Danner, we undertook a tour of inspection through this gentleman's large and varied stock of goods, first we took the back room, there the bagging and ties are piled up (as Danner says) as high as the cellar, then came the clothing stock, and if any one outside of Charleston, has a larger or more attractive stock, we would like to see it; the prices too, are really low down. They are offering bargains in these goods that are well worth looking after. Next we got on the saddles, and they just bewildered us, harness too, of all prices and qualities. Hardware of all kinds, and getting to the front of the store we come to all the little "nick nacks" that ladies are so fond of "looking at," and buying too. To sum up the whole thing, Mr. Cornelson's stock is complete, and any one who goes there and cannot be suited in any article they may want, must be only some crusty old bachelor, who needs the softening and refining influence of some old maid, to knock such nonsense out of his head. All of the gentlemen who are connected with this establishment are polite and attentive, if you go in to price a set of cups and saucers, you will have a small stock of crockery piled up before you at once, and "you pays your money and takes your choice. If you don't want to spend money keep away."

[COMMUNICATED.]

Mr. Editor News & Times:

Some time since, you expressed a wish to hear from parts of the county, something about the crops. I will try to tell you about the crops in my neighborhood, in Liberty Township, we had the finest prospect up to the 10th of July I ever saw, after that we had no rain to do any good till sometime in August, the result is our cotton was ruined. I can speak for myself (and I think it is pretty general) I will get a 450lb bale to every four acres only. Corn where it was worked will make about two thirds of a crop. Sweet potatoes are doing pretty well owing to the rains that we have had in August and September. Farmers are preparing to plant oats more largely this year than ever before. Many will not be able to pay out, but we are going on cheerfully expecting better luck next year. All is quiet and at peace with each other, there is no disturbance between the whites and colored population, we have no Trial Justices, nor do we want any, we have no fusses, law suits or any thing of the kind, every one pays attention to his own business and lets others do the same.
